Narrative Description of School District Proposal

1. What action is the school district proposing to take?

The school district is proposing the supports, services and placement outlined in the enclosed IEP and Placement forms.

2. Why is the school district proposing to act?

The school district met with the parent and school-based Team on 12/09/25 for a regularly scheduled Annual Review Team Meeting. The Team reviewed Jasmine's progress and continued areas of need and developed the enclosed IEP for continued support and services.

3. What rejected options were considered and why was each option rejected?

The team considered extended school year services for Jasmine, however this option was rejected in light of student performance data and records showing that Jasmine is not at risk for substantial regression, or requires a long time to recoup, learned skills over the summer holiday.

4. What evaluation procedure, test, record or report was used as a basis for the proposed action?

Jasmine's past evaluation reports were reviewed and used as a basis for the proposed action. Jasmine's grades reports, as well as progress toward IEP goals were used as a basis for the proposed supports and services as outlined in this IEP.

5. What other factors were relevant to the school district's decision?

Teacher input, parent input, and student input were also relevant to the school district's decision. Additionally, the Team considered and discussed implications involving Chapter 71 of the Massachusetts General Laws. The Team developed a counseling goal based on Jasmine's needs. The Team also included accommodations and services to address her needs, including positive praise and frequent check-ins.

6. What next steps, if any, are recommended?

The school district will initiate the supports and services outlined in the enclosed IEP once parental consent of the IEP and placement pages is received. Further, enclosed are two copies of an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and a Placement Consent Form. Jasmine's parents are requested to review the enclosed documents, sign, and return one copy of each the IEP and Placement Consent Form, retaining one copy for their records. Should Jasmine's parents have any questions, they can contact the special educator whose information can be found on page 1 of this form.

STUDENT AND TEAM VISION

Grade: Seventh grade

Student's Vision (ages 3–13)
This year, I want to learn:	Math: I want to get faster at multi-step problems. ELA: I want to read books that aren't too easy and be able to understand them. Science: I want to do more lab experiments and write about what I see. History: I want to learn how to take better notes.
By the time I finish middle school, I want to:	I want to get 3's in all my classes. I want to ask for help when I'm stuck instead of giving up.
Additional Team Vision Ideas
In response to the student's vision, this year:	The team will support Jasmine in improving her grades in all subject areas. The team will continue to encourage her to attend small groups for Math and ELA.
In response to the student's vision, in 5 years:	The team would like to see Jasmine graduate from Riverstone Prep Middle School and attend Riverstone Prep High School.

PRESENT LEVELS OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE: ACADEMICS

Describe the student's present levels of academic achievement and functional performance in the relevant areas listed below.

Consider the areas of learning listed below and complete only the sections that apply to the student. Include relevant information and data from sources such as initial or most recent evaluations; documentation from classroom performance; parent(s), student, and teacher observations; and curriculum-based and standardized assessments, including MCAS.

Academics

Subject(s)

Check all that apply:

☑ English Language Arts ☑ History and Social Sciences ☑ Math ☑ Science, Technology, and Engineering

Briefly describe current performance	Strengths, interest areas, and preferences	Impact of student's disability on involvement and progress in the general education curriculum or appropriate preschool activities
Jasmine attends school regularly and shows up ready to learn. When calm and focused, she contributes thoughtful comments in class. Jasmine has gotten better with multi-digit operations and integer rules and is at a grade 4 level on her most recent iReady math assessment. ELA: Currently, Jasmine is at a third-grade reading level, as measured by iReady in Fall 2025. Her subcategory scores are Vocabulary: Grade 3, Literature Comprehension: Grade 3, and Informational Text Comprehension: Grade 2. Jasmine can decode most grade level words and reads with adequate fluency. However, when she is asked literal and inferential questions about a text verbally or through writing, Jasmine struggles to provide accurate answers. She has low reading and writing stamina and requires frequent reminders to utilize comprehension skills such as tracking the text,	Jasmine likes to participate in class, is open to feedback especially during 1-on-1 check-ins, full of warmth, and gets along with her peers. Jasmine likes to participate in ELA, loves to help others, have class jobs, and is also motivated by specific positive praise and enjoys being able to talk with her peers.	Jasmine's disability affects her attention, task initiation, focus, stamina, and study skills. These effects can lead to avoidance behaviors, withdrawal from instruction, as well as trouble with adaptability and task initiation. Therefore, Jasmine's impairment impacts her in all content areas and can impede progress without appropriate accommodations and supports from staff.

annotating, rereading, etc. when working independently. Jasmine benefits immensely from working in small groups or 1 to 1 with teachers. When Jasmine is offered small group instruction in ELA, she chooses to stay in whole group 80% of the time. Jasmine faces significant challenges during whole-group instruction. When faced with grade-level literacy tasks that she finds difficult, she struggles to sustain attention and often disengages by quietly putting her head down or asking to use the restroom multiple times. There is a clear pattern where academic frustration leads to avoidance behaviors. Rather than asking for help, Jasmine tends to shut down, affecting her ability to participate in the general education classroom. While she is successful 1:1, she currently requires support to generalize these skills to group settings.

Individualized Education Program	Student Name: Jasmine Regina Bailey	ID: 35110GST	Grade: Seventh grade

PRESENT LEVELS OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE: BEHAVIORAL/SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL

Behavioral/Social/Emotional. Briefly describe current performance. Consider the use of positive behavioral interventions and supports, and other strategies, to address behavior that impedes learning.	Strengths, interest areas, and preferences	Impact of student's disability on involvement and progress in the general education curriculum or appropriate preschool activities
Jasmine is new to Riverstone Prep and has adjusted relatively well. She attends counseling weekly and engages with her counselor. She prefers small-group and quiet activities. At times, Jasmine struggles to regulate herself in the classroom and often shuts down. She demonstrates the ability to identify coping strategies she believes will work for her in the counseling room. She shows increasing understanding of personal boundaries and their importance. She is also able to distinguish between her own emotions and how others might feel in various situations. There is a pattern where academic frustration leads to avoidance behaviors. Rather than asking for help, Jasmine tends to disengage and put her head down, which affects her ability to participate in the general education classroom. Because of this withdrawal pattern she has spent a significant amount of time outside of the classroom checking in with adults, leading to inconsistent amount of time in the classroom.	Jasmine is a bright scholar who loves engaging in creative activities. She enjoys drawing, dance, and spending time with her peers and family.	Jasmine struggles to regulate herself in class when she encounters frustration, prompting her to withdraw and shut down. Her impairment makes it challenging for her to remain engaged in group instruction.

Describe any disability-related skills and proficiencies the student needs in order to avoid and respond to bullying, harassment, or teasing. This section must be completed for students who have a disability that affects social skills development; students vulnerable to bullying, harassment, or teasing; and students with autism.	Specify how these needs, if any, will be addressed in the IEP.

Jasmine's team considered and discussed the implications of M.G.L. Chap. 71, Section 370, MA Bullying Prevention Legislation. The team found that Jasmine is more vulnerable to bullying or being bullied due to her disability. The Team developed goals and accommodations to support Jasmine with her social interactions and self-advocacy skills. Lastly, all protocols related to Massachusetts' Bullying Prevention and Intervention law and Riverstone Prep Public Charter School's related policies will be followed.	Emotional regulation goals have been created to address these concerns.

MEASURABLE ANNUAL GOALS

Please identify the academic and functional goals for this student this year. The goals must be measurable and meet the student's needs that result from their disability to enable them to be involved in and make progress in Early Childhood Outcomes (ages 3–5) or the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks (older students). The goals must meet each of the student's other educational needs that result from their disability

Goal Area:
1 - Counseling
Baseline (What can the student currently do?):
Jasmine is new to Riverstone Prep and has acclimated well. She is able to engage and enjoys socializing with her peers in unstructured settings. In sessions, she does well with listening to instructions; however, she struggles at times to use interventions when prompted. She can identify the emotions others might feel in difficult situations in the counseling setting. She can recognize and acknowledge her involvement in counseling; however, she sometimes does not apply these strategies in the classroom, which leads to withdrawal and shutdown. When frustration arises, she has shown the ability to walk away from situations that are difficult for her. Sometimes she shuts down rather than using strategies that work for her.

Annual Goal/Target What skill(s) will the student be expected to attain by the end of this IEP's timeframe?	Criteria What measurement will be used to determine whether the goal has been achieved?	Method How will progress be measured?	Schedule How frequently will progress be measured?	Person(s) Responsible Who will monitor progress?
Jasmine will improve her self-regulation skills by using a taught calming strategy (deep breathing, movement break, fidget tool, sensory tool, or grounding exercise) to calm her body and re-engage back to tasks 4 out of 5 opportunities, as measured by reports and observation.	in 80% of opportunities	Observation Work Samples	End of the Quarter	Social Worker

Short-term objectives and/or benchmarks (intermediate steps between the baseline and the measurable annual goal)
Given fading adult support, Jasmine will recognize and describe physical cues of being triggered or frustrated (tense body, faster breathing, restlessness, lowered head) in 4 out of 5 opportunities.
Jasmine will independently request or initiate a calming strategy (movement break, breathing pattern, sensory tool, grounding exercise) when experiencing dysregulation in 4 out of 5 opportunities.
When experiencing frustration or being triggered, Jasmine will use a taught self-regulation strategy (such as deep breathing, movement break, or sensory tool) and return to the classroom to engage in the assigned task, reflecting on the effectiveness of her strategy in 4 out of 5 opportunities.

Schedule of Progress Reporting

Explain how and when parent(s) will be periodically informed of the student's progress toward meeting the annual goal(s):

Parents will be notified every quarter

The goals must meet each of the student's other educational needs that result from their disability

Goal Area:
2 - Mathematics
Baseline (What can the student currently do?):
When calm and focused, Jasmine likes to participate in class. Jasmine has gotten better solving questions involving multi-digit operations and integer rules and is working on increasing her math problem solving skill that involves word problems.

Annual Goal/Target What skill(s) will the student be expected to attain by the end of this IEP's timeframe?	Criteria What measurement will be used to determine whether the goal has been achieved?	Method How will progress be measured?	Schedule How frequently will progress be measured?	Person(s) Responsible Who will monitor progress?
Jasmine will improve problem solving of multi-step word problems and grade level questions that involve multiple operations to simplify.	From an average of 55% to 75%	Curriculum Based Assessment	End of the Quarter	SE Classroom Teacher

Short-term objectives and/or benchmarks (intermediate steps between the baseline and the measurable annual goal)
Jasmine will increase her skill solving word problems and show understanding with reason from 55% to 75%.
Jasmine will improve skill when solving equations involving integers and order of operations from 55% to 75%.
Jasmine will increase her ability to utilize her resources such as reference sheet and class notes provided from 55% to 75%.

Schedule of Progress Reporting

Explain how and when parent(s) will be periodically informed of the student's progress toward meeting the annual goal(s):

The parent of Jasmine will receive progress reports at the end of each quarter along with general education report cards.

MEASURABLE ANNUAL GOALS

Please identify the academic and functional goals for this student this year. The goals must be measurable and meet the student's needs that result from their disability to enable them to be involved in and make progress in Early Childhood Outcomes (ages 3–5) or the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks (older students). The goals must meet each of the student's other educational needs that result from their disability

Goal Area:
3 - ELA
Baseline (What can the student currently do?):
Jasmine's current ELA grade is a 1.8. Riverstone Prep uses a standards-based grading system where 3 reflects full mastery of grade-level material and 2 reflects partial mastery. Currently, Jasmine is at a third-grade reading level, as measured by iReady in Fall 2025. Her subcategory scores are Vocabulary: Grade 3, Literature Comprehension: Grade 3, and Informational Text Comprehension: Grade 2. This makes it difficult for her to understand and write about the rigorous texts in ELA. Jasmine demonstrates partial and inconsistent engagement in class tasks and does not consistently put forth the full effort seen in her best moments during writing assignments. This is challenging to collect accurate and reliable data on her independent skills in class. When independently engaged and attempting work with accommodations, she continues to experience difficulty accessing and comprehending grade level texts, e.g., often not annotating, struggling to use reading strategies, etc. She often turns in reading homework with comprehension questions that have answers ranging from 0% to 50% accuracy when completed independently. Jasmine is new to Riverstone Prep and still learning our writing system. She is still working to create full paragraphs with claims, evidence introduced with context, and analysis that accurately reflects her reasoning for selecting her evidence. While effort is inconsistent, Jasmine is starting to adapt to our writing system and showing growth in finding the value of using graphic organizers and supports such as checklists. Her use of these supports is helping her find success and be more accurate with her responses. Jasmine requires significant adult support to break down complex vocabulary, sentence structures, and key ideas, as well as to organize her thinking for writing tasks. With 1:1 adult support, Jasmine can participate in writing activities at grade level, but her independent performance remains below grade-level expectations with 50% accuracy.

Annual Goal/Target What skill(s) will the student be expected to attain by the end of this IEP's timeframe?	Criteria What measurement will be used to determine whether the goal has been achieved?	Method How will progress be measured?	Schedule How frequently will progress be measured?	Person(s) Responsible Who will monitor progress?
Jasmine will increase her ability to comprehend complex texts to independently answer literal and	from 50% to 75%	Work Samples Curriculum Based Assessment Rubrics	End of the Quarter	SE Classroom Teacher inferential comprehension questions or writing prompts that meets grade level rubrics.

Short-term objectives and/or benchmarks (intermediate steps between the baseline and the measurable annual goal)
Jasmine will be able to accurately annotate a given text for the prompt, labeled annotation focus, supporting detail, etc.
Jasmine will increase her ability to independently answer literal comprehension questions about a text such as main idea, setting, or plot.
Jasmine will increase her ability to write a claim that accurately answers each part of the question.
Jasmine will increase her ability to independently find 3 effective pieces of textual evidence, or however many are required for the assignment, to support the claim and answers.
Jasmine will increase her ability to write analysis to show how her evidence is relevant to and contributes to her claim.

Schedule of Progress Reporting

Explain how and when parent(s) will be periodically informed of the student's progress toward meeting the annual goal(s):

Parents will be periodically informed of the student's progress toward meeting the annual goal each quarter through progress reports.
